From Mr. Sweiss: Dear families, this would be a great time to start checking on your children's school supplies. Students are beginning to run out of paper, pencils, and other basic essentials. Folders are falling apart, and tablets are now in dubious situations inside messier backpacks. It may just be a good idea to check on your child's backpack and see how they are holding up!

This Week's Riddle:

What kind of bird never goes to the barber?

Stop by the school office with the correct answer and you will receive skittles for the riddle!! ☺

What is the smartest kind of bee?
Answer: A Spelling Bee.
